For Immediate Release

January 22, 2014

The United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida is pleased to announce the appointment of Carol Mirando as its newest Magistrate Judge, effective January 21, 2014. Judge Mirando is assigned to the Fort Myers Division of the Court, where she will handle both civil and criminal cases.

Judge Mirando graduated in 1994 from Stetson University College of Law where she served as Editor in Chief of the law review. Her distinguished legal career includes serving as a judicial law clerk for a U.S. District Judge in the Middle District of Florida and two Circuit Judges on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit, practicing as an associate in a large law firm, serving as in-house counsel for an international corporation, running her own law firm, teaching law students as an adjunct law professor, and most recently, practicing in the City of Jacksonville's Office of General Counsel as Supervisory Attorney and Assistant General Counsel and as a Special Magistrate for Municipal Code Enforcement.
